This charming stone cottage, situated in Lisdurane just off the N26 Swinford-Foxford road, is set on a large mature site and presents a unique opportunity to own a characterful cottage.

Although in need of complete renovation, the recently cleared site offers easy access to the property and is well defined on all sides with access via large cast iron gates.

Conveniently located less than 5km from Swinford town, 11km from Foxford and within 17km of Ireland West Airport Knock, this property is a must-see for those seeking a renovation project.
